

YMCA of Rock River Valley

A partner of Judson University
College Scholarship Opportunity
Submissions due February 1, 2018

The YMCA of Rock River Valley and Judson University announce a two-year, fully-funded college scholarship. Scholarships will pay for two years in the adult professional program on the Rockford campus, toward an Associate's degree or Bachelor's degree, provided your academic qualifications allow you admission to the University.

This 2018 scholarship will allow enrollment in the fall semester with classes starting on or around August 1. You can view degree programs and qualifications at www.judsonu.edu.

1. One scholarship will be awarded for 2018
2. Students currently attending Judson University do not qualify.
3. To apply, submit this application and a 1,000 word essay that answers the following questions:
 - a. Why is earning an academic degree important to you?
 - b. What are your plans for the future? Job, family life, etc.
 - c. How have you served in the improvement of your community?
 - d. How will this scholarship help you achieve your life goals?
4. Finalists will undergo in-person interviews.
5. Winner will be announced at the YMCA Community Dinner on March 1, 2018.
